AN OUTLINE OF DUNKLIN COUNTY
MISSOURI, showing
The four townships
listed in the 1860
census
and
The eight counties
that surround
Dunklin County.

(Note: Clay County, Ark. was not formed until 1873, so in 1860
that area was part of Greene County, Arkansas.)

PREFACE

The entirety of Dunklin County, Missouri was canvassed in 1860 by F. E. Roberts. He carried three books with him. The main book was the one in which he listed the members of all the households of all free people. The second book was to list those people who had died twelve months prior to the taking of the census, and the third book was to list the persons who owned slaves.

All three of those ledgers have been transcribed and are in this book with a surname index for them collectively. The mortality schedules were obtained from the Missouri Historical Society in St. Louis and the other two schedules from Washington, D.C.

In transcribing this, I have tried to adhere as closely as possible to the original book. The last column on the right-hand side was to list any afflictions the person had. Since my paper was not wide enough to set-up this column, I have put the few notations that were in the column under "occupation." The printed schedule listed it as deaf, dumb, blind, insane, idiotic, pauper, convict. The enumerator listed dumb, blind from sore eyes, convict for murder, insane from fits, idiotic caused by sickness, pauper, born blind.

I have used three distinct markings:

- + means married in the census year.
- * means cannot read / write.
-  means attended school in the census year.

The enumerator did not mark in the column headed "Race", so it is assumed that all the people listed were free white people.

1/12 means the child is one month old, just as 10/12 would mean the child was ten months old. All ages were proofread by someone other than me, so that the extraction would be as correct as possible.

All surnames are in CAPITAL LETTERS, and every name that follows a surname is of the same surname. Some households had people living there with as many as four different surnames.

The abbreviations for the state of birth are as follows:

AL = Alabama	LA = Louisiana	NY = New York
AR = Arkansas	ME = Maine	NC = North Carolina
CT = Connecticut	MD = Maryland	OH = Ohio
DE = Delaware	MA = Massachusetts	PA = Pennsylvania
FL = Florida	MI = Michigan	RI = Rhode Island
GA = Georgia	MS = Mississippi	SC = South Carolina
IL = Illinois	MO = Missouri	TN = Tennessee
IN = Indiana	NB = Nebraska	VT = Vermont
IA = Iowa	NH = New Hampshire	VA = Virginia
KY = Kentucky	NJ = New Jersey

The date on each census page is the date the enumerator visited that dwelling. His recording of the household was to be the members who lived there as of June 1, 1860.

* the enumerator got mixed up on his numbering at this point.

 her age is very definitely given as "4", but that must be incorrect because look at the rest of the information on her.

* refer back to number "657" which probably explains his error.

1860 SLAVE SCHEDULES

In 1850 and 1860 when the census enumerator canvassed the county taking the regular census, he took a book with him in which he recorded the number of slaves each person owned. This is known as the Slave Schedules.

The information he asked for was the name of the owner of the slaves, how many slaves he owned, the age of each, the sex of each, the color of each, and the total number of slave houses that he provided for them.

Microcopy 653, Roll Number 662, Volume I (255-449) from General Services Administration, National Archives, Washington, D.C. is the source of this information regarding the slaves in Dunklin County in 1860.
